

New Student Fee

Incoming Student's Fee

Undergraduate freshman and transfer students enrolling for the first time are charged a $110 New Student Fee. This fee covers the costs associated with orientation including preparation, materials, publications, catered meals, and parking. The fee also covers Welcome to Towson. The mandatory, one-time fee is assessed regardless of enrollment or Orientation attendance and is nonrefundable. The fee will appear on the student's account.

Family and Guest Fee

There is a fee for all family members and guests who attend orientation with a new student. All guest fees are paid online through your student's online registration for orientation. Please note that the family/guest fee is non-refundable.

For summer freshman orientations, the family program runs concurrently alongside the student program, from 8:30am-5pm. The fee is $25 per adult. The guest fee does not include overnight accommodations.

For summer transfer orientations, the family program runs concurrently alongside the student program, from 8:30am-3pm. The fee is $25 per adult. The guest fee does not include overnight accommodations.
