Jordan Feder Memorial Endowed Scholarship

Jordan Feder ’02 was an active student at Towson University who majored in Art. He was a member of the Mascot squad and was known for his political activism on campus. He passed away on November 26, 2003, several days after serving as a medic helping injured protestors during a free trade meeting in Miami. Jordan’s family members, Alan and Michele Feder, were founding members of the former Parents Association. At least one (1) award will be given each year. The award amount is $1000.

Award Eligibility:

- Students must be enrolled at Towson University at a full-time status and complete a scholarship application listed below.
- Preference will be given to students whose family members have an active membership with the Towson Family Network (non-Family Network members can still apply and will be considered for the award).

Award Process

- Students must fill out this entire scholarship application and submit it to Amanda Codd (acodd@towson.edu) by 11/1/2018
- The Towson Family Network Scholarship Committee will review all applications for the Feder Scholarship and notify recipients by 11/15/2018
- An email will be sent out to Towson Family Network members recognizing all scholarship recipients.
