

Adobe Software Apps & Packages for Classrooms and Computer Labs

Towson University

What are these Adobe packages?

Below are Adobe Creative Cloud (Adobe CC) applications licensed for Towson University classrooms and computer labs for the current year. These applications are bundled into packages named “collections” in the table below. Generally, the Master Collection below is installed in classrooms and computer labs by college and department technology staff.

Requirements

Windows: Windows 64-bit operating system; Adobe is no longer updating or developing apps for the Windows 32-bit operating system

Mac: requires Mac OS 10.10 and above.
