

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Friday, October 15, 2021 1:54 PM
Subject: Financial Aid On Hold - Action Required

Not sent from a TU email address

[EXTERNAL EMAIL - USE CAUTION]

This is a reminder that your Faculty/Staff Coronavirus Aid, Relief, Economic Security (CARES) Act, is on hold until all of your documents have been received and processed by our office. Please update your information MyTU and make sure you choose Direct Deposit to enable you to get your fund on time. Submit all required items by October 15, in order to have your file complete before the first disbursement. If you believe you have completed all requirements but are still getting this reminder email, please log into your Financial Aid Account at the link above and click the submit button.

Sincerely,

Financial Aid & Scholarship Office
Towson University

Missing words/poor grammar

MyTU url is incorrect if hovered over in actual email

You have been sent this communication as part of the financial aid process. To opt out of automated communications, click unsubscribe. You may still receive communication that is not auto-generated and sent by the Financial Aid Office. You are still required to complete any outstanding tasks remaining on this site.