Hey [REDACTED], I'm in a meeting and i will not be able to talk to you on phone.I will need you to run a quick errand for me at the nearest store very close to you, this is really urgent and important.Do let me know if you can?

Thanks

Hi [REDACTED]!

I just left the office for the day but I should be in tomorrow morning around 8 AM. Is there something I can do today over the phone?

I need iTunes gift cards to send out to some client, can you confirm if we can get some now? Will want you to make arrangements to get the gift cards so i can advise certain product and denomination to procure. I believe you can get it along your way and quickly run the errand for me, you don't need to turn back at all.
