Review Video and Folder Location

Once you've recorded the video, you can choose which folder to place the video in and change the name.

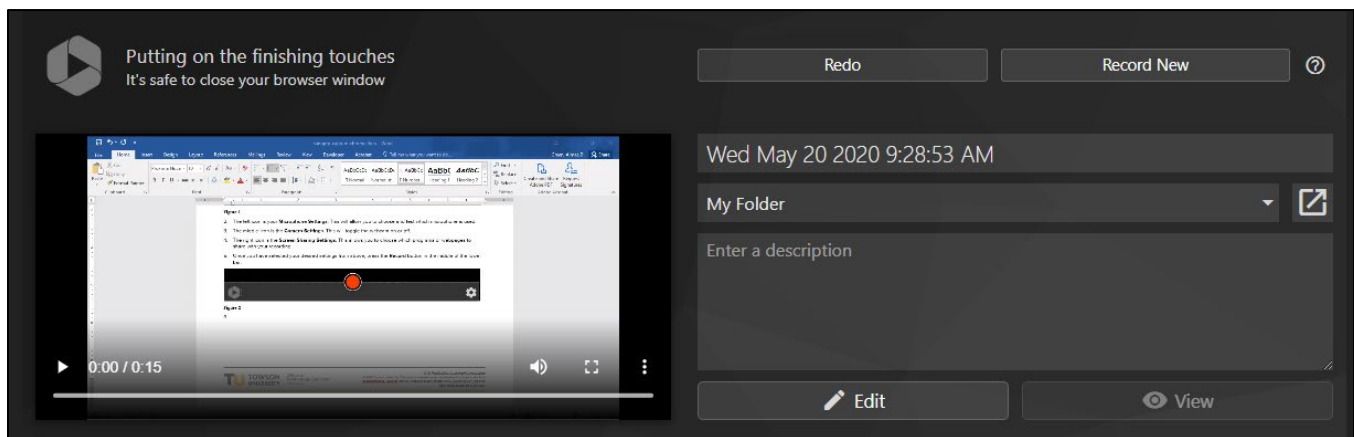

Figure 4

1. In the top left corner of this screen, you can preview the video.
2. In the top right corner, you have the option to Redo the video or save the video and Record New.
3. To the right of the video preview, there are boxes to rename the video and change the folder location. Panopto Capture automatically records to the My Folder area. In order for your students to see the video, you will need to click inside this drop down menu and select your course folder.
4. Under the Folder menu, you have a place to add an optional description. You can also Edit the video or View the final version.
