Accuplacer Retest Request Form for the Reading Battery
Tutoring and Learning Center
Cook Library, Room 524

If you are interested in being retested based on your results from the Accuplacer test, please fill out this form and return it to the Tutoring and Learning Center in person, or by mail to TLC --- Towson University, 8000 York Road, Towson, MD 21252 or by fax to 410-704-3216 or email: placementtesting@towson.edu

Personal Information:

Name: ___________________________  TU Student ID#: ___________________________

Phone Number: ____________________  E-mail: _________________________________

Testing Information:

Test date and original test score:

Where would you like to re-test (on campus, at a remote test site or with Examity):

State the reason you feel your score would improve by retaking the test:

_____________________________________________________________________________

_____________________________________________________________________________

_____________________________________________________________________________

_____________________________________________________________________________

Please read carefully, and sign below.

I understand that completion of this form will not guarantee that I will be given permission to retake the Accuplacer Reading battery. I promise to arrive on time for the retest. I understand that the score I receive on my retest WILL REPLACE my original score, even if I earn a lower score. By signing below, I agree and understand to the above stated stipulations. Please allow us two weeks for us to notify you of our decision.

Student’s Signature: __________________________  Date: __________________________

************************************************************************************
For Official Use Only

Request is:  APPROVED  DENIED

Department Approval Signature: __________________________  Date: __________________________

Updated 8/27/2019